Do people who don't seek after God have an excuse because they are not saved?	Romans 1:18-20	For God's wrath is revealed from heaven against all godlessness and unrighteousness of people who by their unrighteousness suppress the truth, since what can be known about God is evident among them, because God has shown it to them. For his invisible attributes, that is, his eternal power and divine nature, have been clearly seen since the creation of the world, being understood through what he has made. As a result, people are without excuse.	God's word is clear. He has revealed Himself to all of mankind and no one will have a legitimate excuse on the day of judgment.
